

Orgonite Amulet “Tree of Life”

Embedded in Orgonite the high vibration of the Moringa powder has a nourishing effect on a human’s field of bioenergy.

Orgonite-Pendants from Orgonise Africa – for effective radiation protection and energetic well-being.

The African Moringa tree is truly a tree of life. It is regarded as the plant with the highest concentration of nutrients in the world – the single biggest source of vitamins, minerals and secondary plant products. Embedded in Orgonite the high vibration of the Moringa powder has a nourishing effect on a human’s field of Bio energy.

The nourishing quality of the Moringa powder is amplified through the addition of sugar dolomite. This makes the body basic, neutralises acidification in the tissue, softens scar tissue, improves the uptake of oxygen and helps remove plaque formation in the blood vessels.

Chrysocolla:

... adds an anti-inflammatory and detoxifying effect. The mixture in our Life Tree Pendant is completed by Black Tourmaline, which protects from EMF radiation and electrosmog having vitalising properties.

What is Moringa?

Moringa is regarded as the plant with the highest concentration of nutrients in the world. The Moringa tree grows in tropical regions like Bali, but is also native to southern Africa, where it has been used for its healing qualities for many, many years. The whole Moringa tree can be used, from the roots to the leaves and the seeds. The leaves of the Moringa Tree have the highest concentration of nutrients and have an impressive composition of vitamins, minerals, chlorophyll, antioxidants, essential amino acids and secondary plant products. Moringa has antidiabetic, anti-inflammatory, cholesterol lowering and cardioprotective effects. It is also having strong detox applications and can be taken as a health precaution in powder form daily. The seeds work as water purification, better than many conventional methods in use today. If you chew the seeds, they have a very stimulating effect – comparable to Mate or Guarana.

We like to use this superfood in our Life Tree Pendants, because its high frequency is amplified and carried through the basic effects of Orgonite. Similar to the various healing stones, that can be easily used in the Orgonite, the addition of superfoods to it has a positive effect on a human’s field of bioenergy.
