

Large Orgonite Amulet with Turquoise

... Turquoise possesses a strong healing effect, comforting the soul and endowing the body with wellness.

Orgonite pendant from Orgonise Africa – for effective protection from radiation and energetic well-being.

“Turquoise” was introduced to Europe by the Crusaders. It gets its name from the French designation "pierre turquoise", which when translated means "Turkish stone". Even Pliny the Elder mentioned it in his work "Naturalis historia". Particularly beautiful turquoises have been found in Arizona, where the Indians still consider them to be sacred stones. The turquoise was also believed to be a protective stone in Ancient Egypt and Greece, which supposedly warned against upcoming dangers by changing color. It was also used as a burial object and for producing works of art. In the Middle Ages, St. Hildegard of Bingen recognized its healing properties and counted it as one of her twelve main stones. The turquoise is one of the most important healing stones of all.

Mentally-spiritually:

It is said that turquoise provides protection because it can warn us of potential danger. It helps achieve greater success because it boosts self-esteem, improves communication skills, and enhances vigor and stamina. But turquoise also helps with depression. This healing stone empowers one to protect oneself and enables one to retreat and recover from stresses and negative influences in the environment. It conveys the important realization that everyone is responsible for his or her own fate and that past issues have no bearing on the present. In this manner it balances the soul, enables one to think of other things and provides the vitality for taking charge of one's own life.

Orgonite...

... produced from a mixture of resin, metal and crystals, it possesses the ability to collect negative frequencies and transform them into positive energy. Negative radiation, such as that emitted from a cellphone, cordless phone, or radar, is miraculously absorbed and eventually turned into clean orgone energy.

Orgone energy is the life energy, all-pervasive and omnipresent, which was familiar to earlier societies. Hinduism, for example, refers to it as Prana, Buddhism calls it Chi, our German ancestors spoke of Vril, and to the Greeks it was the Ether, which even today remains a very common term.

Wearing an orgonite pendant over the heart or throat chakra protects our bioenergetic field (aura) from electromagnetic radiation and psychological influences: >> Orgonite pendants offer effective everyday personal protection and are easy to wear. Orgonise Africa applies specially adjusted combinations of healing stones, metals and other energetic components, which are strengthened with orgonite, allowing them to develop their full effect.

Use:

Turquoise is most effective on the throat chakra but can also be used on the heart chakra. Only wear the turquoise pendant for a short while or use it just when you need it (on trips, for example). The sun should be avoided
